Read memorandum dated 20th March 1894 of the President, Prince Gulam Mohamad's Charity fund—

The managing Committee beg to explain that Lakshmi has no son, she having been widowed in her childhood; that her two younger brothers of whom one gets 15 Rs a month in the Treasury and the other 4 odd in the Triveswaraswami temple live separately with their own families; that as she was depending on the pension which was allowed to her grandmother who died lately, and was deaf and utterly destitute. She was strongly recommended as a deserving object by messrs Sub Judge Ramaswami Iyer Munsiff Seshagiri Rau & Venkatavarada Iyengar, and A.C. Devaraja Mo: and that therefore she was recommended rather as transferee of pension of her grand mother, in preference to Julia boy. Mr. Amble Annia Pundit had not been informed of her circumstances correctly and he agreed with the rest of the members that she is a fit object for charity. The Committee however resolve that Tulsabayi's case may be first attended to and that she be admitted to the pension which is now vacant till her eldest boy is able to earn a livelihood or until he attains 20 years of age.

2 Ignasiamma has a son who is a sepoy in the Mysore Barr force. He lives separate with his family. Ignasiammal and the widow of another son of hers, Medal Ammal who has 5 young children live together. They are destitute. It is therefore recommended that the daughter in law may be admitted to the Charity pension, instead of Ignasiammal, until her eldest boy is able to earn a livelihood or until she is 20 years old.

3 Resolved that as it is very inconvenient to identify the gosha women in the Vice Presidents' office, when they come there driving in a cart, to receive their pensions they may be required to be examined by one of the members of the Committee once a quarter in their Mohallas, with the help of some respectable women who are not themselves "pardanishin" and produce the certificate of identity.

4 Read the Presidents' docket no 1187/161-92.

The Government Hindustani School in Mysore is paid monthly Rs 5-12-0 from the Charity Fund, for payment of scholarships. The Committee hold and recommend that it is fair to transfer this amount to the Sultan School in Krishnarajpuralla, which is a charity institution maintained by the Gumbaz fund.

5 Read the President's docket no. 289/91-92 dated 30th December 1892, para 2, as regards the resolution of the Committee to discontinue the allowance to such as have since become able to maintain themselves.

The cases of Roman Catholic Christian Scholars were examined - No pensioner was found unfit to be in need of the pension: among the brahmins, no 227 Gangadhara Rau's is submitted for orders and a statement.

Statement showing the number of pensioners who are not in need of the Charity from the Prince Gulam Mahamad Charity Fund.

Name.	Present age.	When admitted	Circumstances under which the individual was originally admitted	Remarks
Gangadhara Rau.	81	18 August 1891.	Destitution.	It has been ascertained that the pensioner gets his food daily in the morning and evening in the Government Chattrum. He is strong. He says he prefers the pension to the feeding in the Chattrum. It is more to his convenience and advantage that he is fed in the Chattrum.
